

THE MIRROR JOURNAL

VOL. 3, NO. 42

MIRROR, ALTA., AUGUST 21, 1914.

CENTS PER COPY

PYMS' HEREFORDS WIN MANY PRIZES

It is pleasing to note that the Mirror district is not going behind in the fine bred Hereford cattle which the Mirror district is noted for. As a number on exhibition at the Edmonton fair by the Pym Bros. of Mirror went to show that Mirror district can hold its own at any exhibition where it is represented. The following are among the prize winners: Bull, 3 years or over—4, Timus, R. M. Pym; Bull, senior yearling—2, Beau Robert, R. M. Pym; Bull, junior yearling—5, Monarch, R. M. Pym; Bull, junior calf—2, Majestic, R. M. Pym; Heifer, junior yearling—4 Ursula, R. M. Pym; 5, Polly, R. M. Pym; Heifer, junior calf—Lady Laura, R. M. Pym; Granded herd—4, R. M. Pym; The same herd won the first, and three seconds, and the diploma at the Vigoreille Fair last Monday and Tuesday, and at Camrose on Wednesday and Thursday, made a clean sweep of all the prizes.

FIRST WAR SESSION OF PARLIAMENT

Ottawa, Aug. 18.—The day fixed for the formal opening of the first war session of the Dominion parliament ever held, opened with a steady downpour of rain, but before moon the weather conditions commenced to improve and the sun came out. The attendance of members for the preliminary proceedings was comparatively small and they seemed to be unanimously of the opinion that the session would both brief and noncontentious. Some held the opinion that all legislation to be passed would receive the Royal assent by Saturday afternoon and that they would be on their way to their homes by Saturday night or Sunday.

While the legislation which the government proposes to submit may not be disposed of quite so expeditiously as predicted, there is no doubt that, barring unexpected developments, the House will rise again before the end of next week and the members will not return to the Capital until the regular session is summoned in January.

As had been announced, there was no social feature in connection with the opening of the war session. His Royal Highness the Governor General was accompanied by the usual escorts furnished by the Princess Louise Dragoon Guards and on arrival at Parliament Hill was awaited by the customary bodyguard from the Governor-General's Foot Guards, but within the senate chamber, when His Royal Highness mounted the dais to read the speech from the throne, an unusual air of solemnity prevailed. The galleries were not filled with representatives of society admitted by ticket, but by representatives of all classes of people to whom the doors were thrown open. The same democratic air prevailed the floor of the House, where the members appeared behind the bar to hear the Governor-General read the most momentous speech from the throne ever listened to by the representatives of the people. The Duchess of Connaught, the Princess Patricia and two ladies-in-waiting were the only ladies on the floor of the House.

The speech from the throne was as follows:

Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate, Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

Very grave events vitally affecting the interests of His Majesty's dominions have transpired since prorogation. The unfortunate outbreak of war made it immediately imperative for my ministers to take extraordinary measures for the defence of Canada and for the maintenance of the honor and integrity of our empire.

With respect to each of these measures, it may require the sanction and approval of Parliament the necessary legislative proposals will be submitted for your consideration.

Other bills authorizing additional measures which are essential for the public safety will also be presented to you without delay.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons: Estimates will be had before you to provide for expenditure which has been or may be caused by the outbreak of hostilities.

Honorable gentlemen of the Senate, gentlemen of the House of Commons: The critical period into which we have just entered has aroused to the full the patriotism and loyalty which have always actuated the Canadian people.

From every province, and indeed from every community the response to the call of duty has been all that could be desired. The spirit which thus unites Canada impresses also the majority of nations throughout the world, and may be assured that united action to repel the common danger will not fail to strengthen the ties that bind together those vast dominions in the possession and enjoyment of the blessings of British liberty.

As representative of His Majesty the King, I must add my expression of thanks and admiration for the splendid spirit of patriotism and generosity that has been displayed throughout the length and breadth of the dominions.

Opportunity To Seize Germ'ny's Trade

London, Aug. 18.—With a view to stimulating and encouraging trade with the Germanies overseas, the war risks insurance committee decided yesterday to fix the rate for cargo insurances, more especially those relating to goods imported, at three guineas per cent. The alteration will take place from this morning.

The British Empire Industrial League appeals to overseas and home traders to make the most of the golden opportunity that is now afforded them of capturing for the Empire the trade, amounting to millions, hitherto shared by Germany and Austria-Hungary. The total value of German and Austrian exports are given as well over £30,000,000 yearly, the bulk of which is done with the overseas dominions.

"This enormous trade," says the writer, "will now cease unless peace is declared, and no better opportunity could be given to the British traders to seize it permanently. Our trade routes are free and safe. Our manufacturers are not overburdened with orders. The markets of the world are clear of our most unsupersolous competitors, those vast commercial connections, which have been easily secured by us."

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS ITEMS

FOUND.—A child's imitation bear-skin coat on Laramer trail. Owner can have same on paying for this ad. Apply at THE JOURNAL office.

FOUND.—On Lake Street, a white woolen shawl. Owner may have same by paying for this notice, at THE JOURNAL office.

On Monday last, at the home of Mr. Edward Bickell, a surprise was given Mrs. Flick, his sister, by about thirty persons on the occasion of his birthday.

The evening was pleasantly spent in games and cards until about midnight when a very tasty supper was served at the tables. At a considerate hour the party broke up, alighting on an evening well spent and wishing the hostess many happy returns of the day.

H. Summers, of Biggar, arrived in town on Tuesday. Mr. Summers is an engineer on the G. T. P. with headquarters at Mirrur.

Geo. Koonce, of Wainwright, arrived in Mirrur on Monday. Mr. Koonce is a conductor on the way freight.

Mr. and Miss Johnson, of Ottawa, were in town for a few days last week. Mr. Johnson owns some real estate in Mirrur.

Rev. M. W. Holdom, of Castor, was in Mirrur on Wednesday. Rev. Holdom will take up his duties in Mirrur about the middle of September.

If war was hell fifty years ago what will it be now?

Clyde Pitman is home after spending the baseball season in Banff.

Harvesting throughout the district is proceeding in fine shape, especially in the South Buffalo Lake district, where the bulk of the crop has been cut. Wallie Jaacks commenced threshing last Wednesday. The climatic conditions this season have been all that could be desired, although the grain ripened rather fast and followed on the heels of the haying.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid meeting will be postponed until the second Thursday in September.

Clive challenged for the "Brewery Trophy" on Tuesday but withdrew a day or two later.

Miss Biggar left last week for her home in Blenheim, Ont., after a four months' visit with her sister, Mrs. T. S. Little.

Fred Day received notice last Wednesday morning to report to the headquarters of the 101st Fusiliers and left the same afternoon for Edmonton. He will leave Edmonton tomorrow (Saturday) with the regiment for Quebec. Mr. Day's two brothers from Eastern Canada have also joined the ranks and the three brothers will be members of the first contingent. Mr. Day's friends will one and all hope for his safe return from the European war.

TRAINING FOR THE FRONT

Edmonton, Aug. 20.—In preparation for their expected departure for Val Cartier camp on Saturday the service square of the 10th Alberta Dragoons, and the 101st regiment, are daily engaging in drills, manoeuvres and marches which will keep them in good training for the arduous days to come.

The Fusiliers are drilling for five hours a day, from 11:30 in the morning, and from 2:30 to 5 in the afternoon. Their commanding officer, Lieutenant Col. Osborne, is determined to put the regiment in efficient condition, as he considers it the most difficult possible before entraining.

Officers of the corps are enforcing rigid discipline with good results.

WALKED 236 MILES TO ENLIST

A. Goran, a homesteader living north of Ground, two hundred and thirty-six miles north of Edmonton by the trail, wanted to go to the front so badly that he travelled the whole distance to Edmonton on foot.

He arrived in the city Tuesday night, foot-sore and weary, but lost no time in making application to the 101st Fusiliers. He was promptly accepted by Capt. Young of "C" company.

Goran is an ex-member of the famous "Queen's Own" regiment of Edinburgh.

Germany Cavalry Occupy Brussels

Paris, Aug. 22.—The German cavalry has occupied Brussels. This official announcement was made tonight. Strong columns are following up this movement. The Belgian army is retiring on Antwerp without having been engaged by the Germans.

Along with the announcement of the fall of Brussels the official French statement says: Our troops have met with brilliant success in Alsace, especially between Malshausen and Altkirch. The Germans retreating on the Rhine, left in our hands many prisoners and 24 guns, six of which were captured after a sharp struggle by our infantry.

In Lorraine the day was less fortunate for us. Our advanced troops were forced by a counter attack to fall back in a body, which is strongly established on the Seille and along the canal from the Marne to Rhine."

Now, whatever has been received of any naval movements, either in the North Sea or the Mediterranean.

"The report of the Brewery Cup contests between Mirrur and Truchin, which have been appearing for the last two days in the sporting column have a very familiar appearance to readers of that page of about ten years ago. In the days of real sport, the Brewery Cup, the same old Brewery Cup, was the highest hope of baseball in Mirrur and Truchin. As we said before, those were the days of real sport—Calgary Alberta. The contests even now are worth witnessing, as the last two games between Mirrur and Truchin were of the best.

NOTICE

OWING TO THE ACTION OF WHOLESALE HOUSES
ELIMINATING CREDIT AND SELLING FOR CASH
ONLY, I WILL BE FORCED TO DO THE SAME

On and after AUGUST 28th my terms will be	CASH ONLY—Absolutely no credit
--	-----------------------------------

The war will greatly affect the prices of drugs and chemicals, most of which are imported from Europe. Cathartics, Anti-itch, Iodine, Camphor, Glycerine, Kodik, Cathartics, Antiseptics, Calomel, etc., will advance very rapidly.

CHAS. L. SUGGETT

Chemist and Druggist.

New Fall Goods

We are just opening
our first shipment of new Fall Goods and invite Your inspection of same

Panrucker & Holland

Mirror and Alix

Bon-Ton Livery and Feed Stables

Prompt Service. Rigs and Drivers supplied to any Part of the Country!

Draying Done on Short Notice.

F. Tulloch, Mirror.

7 ROOM 2 STORY HOUSE AT A SNAP

Plastered, stone foundation, good cellar, barn, chicken house---well.
Will sacrifice for CASH.

Fred. Dowswell, Carroll Avenue, Mirror

Look! Look! Look! LUMBER PRICES SHATTERED

Having just received a car of dimension lumber bought from a bankrupt firm, we are able to quote you the following prices while this material lasts.

2 x 4's and 2 x 6's - 12 to 16 ft.
$21.00
2 x 4's - 10, 18 and 20ft.
$23.00

DON'T WAIT--BUY NOW
SEE US FOR LUMBER

The Imperial Lumber Co. Ltd.
K. B. Iveson, Manager, MIRROR

Read This!

248 acres at $25 per acre

One of the finest parcels of land in this district, situated on the shore of beautiful Buffalo Lake. It is the best of land and can all be cultivated. One mile and a half lake front; is six miles from Mirror, and one mile from school. No buildings; two miles of wire fence--3 strands. Land in the immediate neighborhood is sold at $35 an acre. This land will be sacrificed at

$25 PER ACRE

$2500 cash and terms on the balance to suit the purchaser. For further particulars enquire at : THE MIRROR JOURNAL

This Is Your Opportunity

The Mirror Journal
Published every Friday at Mirror Alberta.

Subscription Rates
To all points in Canada, $1.00 to the U. S., $1.50 per Year.

Advertising Rates
Legal and Municipal Advertising, 1
cents per line for first insertion; 2
cents per line for subsequent insertion.

Lost, Strayed or Found Notices, 2 cents for one insertion. Three insertions for $1.00.

Professional Advertisements, $1.0
per month.

Display Notices in Local columns,
10 cents per line for first insertion; 2
cents per line for subsequent insertions.

Display Advertising Rates given on application.

All other Advertising Agencies
paid at the end of each month.

We do not necessarily concur in or accept responsibility for all views expressed by correspondents or contributors. Letters must be signed by a man of plume, provided they are accompanied by a bona fide signature.

Good & Ballentyns, Publishers.

MIRROR ALTA., AUG. 2, 1914

When Noah entered the ark,
Man, it was the celebrated in the old-days, as the day on which Noah left the ark, and a very long time it must have been if we are to believe the medieval dramatists, for Noah's wife was always the typical wife of the ark.

In the Chester cycle when Noah tells her of the coming flood she swears at him, and says, "I will, and absolutely always believe that you are a liar, and that you are a knave, and
you are a scoundrel, and a good old
ex-epus till the man comes to make the
ark. When it is finished she releases to enter."

"What can it be?" says Noah.
"What stands there?"

Finally her son turns her in by forehead, and she says, "I will, and abso-lutely always believe that you are
a liar, and that you are a knave, and
you are a scoundrel, and a good old
ex-epus till the man comes to make the
ark."

And men are made, i. e. they say.

—London Chronicle.

Destined by a Fire of Rage.

In Deut's "Life of Beethoven" the
great composer's own story of how he
began to write.

"I was writing an opera, I had to
deal with a very difficult scene, and
had written it all, and written two
great arias to the same words, neither
of which pleased him, and also a third,
which he did not care for the first time.
He said, 'I will not have it, I will have
it with him. I was thinking he had
done with him and had begun to
write another, when he said, 'No, I
had that inside, I had hardly begun
it half an hour before I heard a
knock at the door, which I recognized
as that of the teacher.'

"I sprang up from my table in such
a rage that as the man came into the
room I dashed myself under the floor, as
they do on the stage, and he said, 'Get
up your arms and gesticulated in illustration,' and I fell upon my hands.
When he had gone, I lay there, and
from that moment I have remained so.
The doctor said I injured the nerve."

Japanese Birthday Feasts.

In Japan no notice is taken of the actual anniversary of a birth, but every one adds a year to his or her age
on the day of his or her birthday, which occurs either late in January or at the beginning of February. Thus a man who is born on the first of January
in his first year dies in his birth, and on the following Setsubun it will be two although in fact it may be only a few days. The Japanese have a very marked manner, except that a somewhat idle bold with small red beans which are to be thrown at the people in the evening. Married people are welcome about the home to a square rice measure to the cry of "Fuku ga oshii!"
One is to be given to the family, another out with the denouement. Every one is supposed to eat the number of beans corresponding with his age and one over for the first birthday. The Japanese also congratulate each other with words of good ones and good fortune—Aigou.

$25 PER ACRE

The great electrical physicist, R. T. Lampley, using the solar telescope in Allegheny (Pa.) observatory, to which was attached the most sensitive bolometers ever made, able to detect one-millionth
of a degree of heat, was able to detect
a trace of heat from the solar sun's Arcturus, Vega and Sirius.
He could detect by the sensible heat from the sun's heat, the presence of presence of heat, but the intensity was too small to measure with accuracy.

Or, we take the same telephotoscope to the sun's surface, and look at our sun, but no trace of heat could be detected, our sun
being so far away, that it is a real triumph that the sun's mentioned
it was not like the point of a needle.

Edgar A. Larkin in New York American.

Please pay your subscription.

Uses and Value of Timber.

In order to know what a tract of timber is worth it is necessary to know the value of the products. Not only should the general value of the different kinds of timber be known, but special attention should be given to any special need for given kinds or sizes of timber which may be used in different ways. The market for timber is not entirely for trees, for poles, firewood, posts, piles, rails, lumber, and very frequently timber is used in the manufacture of acid factories and box manufacturers,
white special kinds, such as pine and spruce, are used in growth, lumber,
etc., have a large number of uses,
such as in the vehicle industry,
furniture making, etc. It is again necessary to know the value of timber
to inquire into their special markets and for the most profitable field into which timber should be sent.

By taking into account the value received for their products—It is difficult to determine the value of timber.

Punctuation Marks.

Printers mean the stops and points so as to indicate the meaning of sentences and assist the reader to a better comprehension, is ascribed to Abdus, a native of Alexandria, Egypt, who lived in the third century B. C. Whatever his system may have been, it was not widely known, and it was not until it was introduced by Charlemagne, the vari-

These were subsequently copied by other printers until they became universal. Most ancient language had a limited system of punctuation.

Tommy's Hobby.

The following happened in a Manchester school the other day. The teacher had been speaking on the subject of the importance of objects at art and interest and study of the fabulous wealth that had been expended on the collection of their pet pe-

Thinking to obtain some idea of the characters of the members of his class
the teacher did not know who they thought their pet would like to eat if they had plenty of money.

Up went the hand of a boy who was asked, "What is your pet?" "A dog," was the fact, answered from him were very curious about any subject. So this opportunity was seized by the teacher.

"What is Tommy, and what would you enter?"

"Bents, sir," was the prompt reply.
The lesson was changed and that the teacher recovering from the shock—London Times.

—London Chronicle.

Destined by a Fire of Rage.

In Deut's "Life of Beethoven" the
great composer's own story of how he
began to write.

"I was writing an opera, I had to
deal with a very difficult scene, and
had written it all, and written two
great arias to the same words, neither
of which pleased him, and also a third,
which he did not care for the first time.
He said, 'I will not have it, I will have
it with him. I was thinking he had
done with him and had begun to
write another, when he said, 'No, I
had that inside, I had hardly begun
it half an hour before I heard a
knock at the door, which I recognized
as that of the teacher.'

"I sprang up from my table in such
a rage that as the man came into the
room I dashed myself under the floor, as
they do on the stage, and he said, 'Get
up your arms and gesticulated in illus-
tration,' and I fell upon my hands.
When he had gone, I lay there, and
from that moment I have remained so.
The doctor said I injured the nerve."

—London Chronicle.

Destined by a Fire of Rage.

In Deut's "Life of Beethoven" the
great composer's own story of how he
began to write.

"I was writing an opera, I had to
deal with a very difficult scene, and
had written it all, and written two
great arias to the same words, neither
of which pleased him, and also a third,
which he did not care for the first time.
He said, 'I will not have it, I will have
it with him. I was thinking he had
done with him and had begun to
write another, when he said, 'No, I
had that inside, I had hardly begun
it half an hour before I heard a
knock at the door, which I recognized
as that of the teacher.'

"I sprang up from my table in such
a rage that as the man came into the
room I dashed myself under the floor, as
they do on the stage, and he said, 'Get
up your arms and gesticulated in illus-
tration,' and I fell upon my hands.
When he had gone, I lay there, and
from that moment I have remained so.
The doctor said I injured the nerve."

—London Chronicle.

Destined by a Fire of Rage.

In Deut's "Life of Beethoven" the
great composer's own story of how he
began to write.

"I was writing an opera, I had to
deal with a very difficult scene, and
had written it all, and written two
great arias to the same words, neither
of which pleased him, and also a third,
which he did not care for the first time.
He said, 'I will not have it, I will have
it with him. I was thinking he had
done with him and had begun to
write another, when he said, 'No, I
had that inside, I had hardly begun
it half an hour before I heard a
knock at the door, which I recognized
as that of the teacher.'

"I sprang up from my table in such
a rage that as the man came into the
room I dashed myself under the floor, as
they do on the stage, and he said, 'Get
up your arms and gesticulated in illus-
tration,' and I fell upon my hands.
When he had gone, I lay there, and
from that moment I have remained so.
The doctor said I injured the nerve."

—London Chronicle.

Destined by a Fire of Rage.

In Deut's "Life of Beethoven" the
great composer's own story of how he
began to write.

"I was writing an opera, I had to
deal with a very difficult scene, and
had written it all, and written two
great arias to the same words, neither
of which pleased him, and also a third,
which he did not care for the first time.
He said, 'I will not have it, I will have
it with him. I was thinking he had
done with him and had begun to
write another, when he said, 'No, I
had that inside, I had hardly begun
it half an hour before I heard a
knock at the door, which I recognized
as that of the teacher.'

"I sprang up from my table in such
a rage that as the man came into the
room I dashed myself under the floor, as
they do on the stage, and he said, 'Get
up your arms and gesticulated in illus-
tration,' and I fell upon my hands.
When he had gone, I lay there, and
from that moment I have remained so.
The doctor said I injured the nerve."

—London Chronicle.

Destined by a Fire of Rage.

In Deut's "Life of Beethoven" the
great composer's own story of how he
began to write.

"I was writing an opera, I had to
deal with a very difficult scene, and
had written it all, and written two
great arias to the same words, neither
of which pleased him, and also a third,
which he did not care for the first time.
He said, 'I will not have it, I will have
it with him. I was thinking he had
done with him and had begun to
write another, when he said, 'No, I
had that inside, I had hardly begun
it half an hour before I heard a
knock at the door, which I recognized
as that of the teacher.'

"I sprang up from my table in such
a rage that as the man came into the
room I dashed myself under the floor, as
they do on the stage, and he said, 'Get
up your arms and gesticulated in illus-
tration,' and I fell upon my hands.
When he had gone, I lay there, and
from that moment I have remained so.
The doctor said I injured the nerve."

—London Chronicle.

Destined by a Fire of Rage.

In Deut's "Life of Beethoven" the
great composer's own story of how he
began to write.

"I was writing an opera, I had to
deal with a very difficult scene, and
had written it all, and written two
great arias to the same words, neither
of which pleased him, and also a third,
which he did not care for the first time.
He said, 'I will not have it, I will have
it with him. I was thinking he had
done with him and had begun to
write another, when he said, 'No, I
had that inside, I had hardly begun
it half an hour before I heard a
knock at the door, which I recognized
as that of the teacher.'

"I sprang up from my table in such
a rage that as the man came into the
room I dashed myself under the floor, as
they do on the stage, and he said, 'Get
up your arms and gesticulated in illus-
tration,' and I fell upon my hands.
When he had gone, I lay there, and
from that moment I have remained so.
The doctor said I injured the nerve."

—London Chronicle.

Destined by a Fire of Rage.

In Deut's "Life of Beethoven" the
great composer's own story of how he
began to write.

"I was writing an opera, I had to
deal with a very difficult scene, and
had written it all, and written two
great arias to the same words, neither
of which pleased him, and also a third,
which he did not care for the first time.
He said, 'I will not have it, I will have
it with him. I was thinking he had
done with him and had begun to
write another, when he said, 'No, I
had that inside, I had hardly begun
it half an hour before I heard a
knock at the door, which I recognized
as that of the teacher.'

"I sprang up from my table in such
a rage that as the man came into the
room I dashed myself under the floor, as
they do on the stage, and he said, 'Get
up your arms and gesticulated in illus-
tration,' and I fell upon my hands.
When he had gone, I lay there, and
from that moment I have remained so.
The doctor said I injured the nerve."

—London Chronicle.

Destined by a Fire of Rage.

In Deut's "Life of Beethoven" the
great composer's own story of how he
began to write.

"I was writing an opera, I had to
deal with a very difficult scene, and
had written it all, and written two
great arias to the same words, neither
of which pleased him, and also a third,
which he did not care for the first time.
He said, 'I will not have it, I will have
it with him. I was thinking he had
done with him and had begun to
write another, when he said, 'No, I
had that inside, I had hardly begun
it half an hour before I heard a
knock at the door, which I recognized
as that of the teacher.'

"I sprang up from my table in such
a rage that as the man came into the
room I dashed myself under the floor, as
they do on the stage, and he said, 'Get
up your arms and gesticulated in illus-
tration,' and I fell upon my hands.
When he had gone, I lay there, and
from that moment I have remained so.
The doctor said I injured the nerve."

—London Chronicle.

Destined by a Fire of Rage.

In Deut's "Life of Beethoven" the
great composer's own story of how he
began to write.

"I was writing an opera, I had to
deal with a very difficult scene, and
had written it all, and written two
great arias to the same words, neither
of which pleased him, and also a third,
which he did not care for the first time.
He said, 'I will not have it, I will have
it with him. I was thinking he had
done with him and had begun to
write another, when he said, 'No, I
had that inside, I had hardly begun
it half an hour before I heard a
knock at the door, which I recognized
as that of the teacher.'

"I sprang up from my table in such
a rage that as the man came into the
room I dashed myself under the floor, as
they do on the stage, and he said, 'Get
up your arms and gesticulated in illus-
tration,' and I fell upon my hands.
When he had gone, I lay there, and
from that moment I have remained so.
The doctor said I injured the nerve."

—London Chronicle.

Destined by a Fire of Rage.

In Deut's "Life of Beethoven" the
great composer's own story of how he
began to write.

"I was writing an opera, I had to
deal with a very difficult scene, and
had written it all, and written two
great arias to the same words, neither
of which pleased him, and also a third,
which he did not care for the first time.
He said, 'I will not have it, I will have
it with him. I was thinking he had
done with him and had begun to
write another, when he said, 'No, I
had that inside, I had hardly begun
it half an hour before I heard a
knock at the door, which I recognized
as that of the teacher.'

"I sprang up from my table in such
a rage that as the man came into the
room I dashed myself under the floor, as
they do on the stage, and he said, 'Get
up your arms and gesticulated in illus-
tration,' and I fell upon my hands.
When he had gone, I lay there, and
from that moment I have remained so.
The doctor said I injured the nerve."

—London Chronicle.

Destined by a Fire of Rage.

In Deut's "Life of Beethoven" the
great composer's own story of how he
began to write.

"I was writing an opera, I had to
deal with a very difficult scene, and
had written it all, and written two
great arias to the same words, neither
of which pleased him, and also a third,
which he did not care for the first time.
He said, 'I will not have it, I will have
it with him. I was thinking he had
done with him and had begun to
write another, when he said, 'No, I
had that inside, I had hardly begun
it half an hour before I heard a
knock at the door, which I recognized
as that of the teacher.'

"I sprang up from my table in such
a rage that as the man came into the
room I dashed myself under the floor, as
they do on the stage, and he said, 'Get
up your arms and gesticulated in illus-
tration,' and I fell upon my hands.
When he had gone, I lay there, and
from that moment I have remained so.
The doctor said I injured the nerve."

—London Chronicle.

Destined by a Fire of Rage.

In Deut's "Life of Beethoven" the
great composer's own story of how he
began to write.

"I was writing an opera, I had to
deal with a very difficult scene, and
had written it all, and written two
great arias to the same words, neither
of which pleased him, and also a third,
which he did not care for the first time.
He said, 'I will not have it, I will have
it with him. I was thinking he had
done with him and had begun to
write another, when he said, 'No, I
had that inside, I had hardly begun
it half an hour before I heard a
knock at the door, which I recognized
as that of the teacher.'

"I sprang up from my table in such
a rage that as the man came into the
room I dashed myself under the floor, as
they do on the stage, and he said, 'Get
up your arms and gesticulated in illus-
tration,' and I fell upon my hands.
When he had gone, I lay there, and
from that moment I have remained so.
The doctor said I injured the nerve."

—London Chronicle.

Destined by a Fire of Rage.

In Deut's "Life of Beethoven" the
great composer's own story of how he
began to write.

"I was writing an opera, I had to
deal with a very difficult scene, and
had written it all, and written two
great arias to the same words, neither
of which pleased him, and also a third,
which he did not care for the first time.
He said, 'I will not have it, I will have
it with him. I was thinking he had
done with him and had begun to
write another, when he said, 'No, I
had that inside, I had hardly begun
it half an hour before I heard a
knock at the door, which I recognized
as that of the teacher.'

"I sprang up from my table in such
a rage that as the man came into the
room I dashed myself under the floor, as
they do on the stage, and he said, 'Get
up your arms and gesticulated in illus-
tration,' and I fell upon my hands.
When he had gone, I lay there, and
from that moment I have remained so.
The doctor said I injured the nerve."

—London Chronicle.

Destined by a Fire of Rage.

In Deut's "Life of Beethoven" the
great composer's own story of how he
began to write.

"I was writing an opera, I had to
deal with a very difficult scene, and
had written it all, and written two
great arias to the same words, neither
of which pleased him, and also a third,
which he did not care for the first time.
He said, 'I will not have it, I will have
it with him. I was thinking he had
done with him and had begun to
write another, when he said, 'No, I
had that inside, I had hardly begun
it half an hour before I heard a
knock at the door, which I recognized
as that of the teacher.'

"I sprang up from my table in such
a rage that as the man came into the
room I dashed myself under the floor, as
they do on the stage, and he said, 'Get
up your arms and gesticulated in illus-
tration,' and I fell upon my hands.
When he had gone, I lay there, and
from that moment I have remained so.
The doctor said I injured the nerve."

—London Chronicle.

Destined by a Fire of Rage.

In Deut's "Life of Beethoven" the
great composer's own story of how he
began to write.

"I was writing an opera, I had to
deal with a very difficult scene, and
had written it all, and written two
great arias to the same words, neither
of which pleased him, and also a third,
which he did not care for the first time.
He said, 'I will not have it, I will have
it with him. I was thinking he had
done with him and had begun to
write another, when he said, 'No, I
had that inside, I had hardly begun
it half an hour before I heard a
knock at the door, which I recognized
as that of the teacher.'

"I sprang up from my table in such
a rage that as the man came into the
room I dashed myself under the floor, as
they do on the stage, and he said, 'Get
up your arms and gesticulated in illus-
tration,' and I fell upon my hands.
When he had gone, I lay there, and
from that moment I have remained so.
The doctor said I injured the nerve."

—London Chronicle.

Destined by a Fire of Rage.

In Deut's "Life of Beethoven" the
great composer's own story of how he
began to write.

"I was writing an opera, I had to
deal with a very difficult scene, and
had written it all, and written two
great arias to the same words, neither
of which pleased him, and also a third,
which he did not care for the first time.
He said, 'I will not have it, I will have
it with him. I was thinking he had
done with him and had begun to
write another, when he said, 'No, I
had that inside, I had hardly begun
it half an hour before I heard a
knock at the door, which I recognized
as that of the teacher.'

"I sprang up from my table in such
a rage that as the man came into the
room I dashed myself under the floor, as
they do on the stage, and he said, 'Get
up your arms and gesticulated in illus-
tration,' and I fell upon my hands.
When he had gone, I lay there, and
from that moment I have remained so.
The doctor said I injured the nerve."

—London Chronicle.

Destined by a Fire of Rage.

In Deut's "Life of Beethoven" the
great composer's own story of how he
began to write.

"I was writing an opera, I had to
deal with a very difficult scene, and
had written it all, and written two
great arias to the same words, neither
of which pleased him, and also a third,
which he did not care for the first time.
He said, 'I will not have it, I will have
it with him. I was thinking he had
done with him and had begun to
write another, when he said, 'No, I
had that inside, I had hardly begun
it half an hour before I heard a
knock at the door, which I recognized
as that of the teacher.'

"I sprang up from my table in such
a rage that as the man came into the
room I dashed myself under the floor, as
they do on the stage, and he said, 'Get
up your arms and gesticulated in illus-
tration,' and I fell upon my hands.
When he had gone, I lay there, and
from that moment I have remained so.
The doctor said I injured the nerve."

—London Chronicle.

Why Canada Should Be Confident

In view of the events taking place in Europe, which will constitute an epoch of perhaps unprecedented importance in history, we appeal strongly to all Canadian business men and all who own securities or investments of any kind to meet the present situation with calmness and confidence. Our first duty, at any cost, is to aid in Great Britain's sustenance and defense, and our next duty, not less important, is to keep the business of the Dominion moving as normally as possible.

Let it be remembered that while we must lay aside some time to pay our share of the cost of the war, we have at our back storehouses of natural wealth scarcely yet touched. As the calamities of Europe place a higher value on our wheat and other exportable crops, will the same calamities—the result of militarism and despotism—make the peaceful lands of Canada attractive to some of the best people of Europe whose hopes and lands, generation after generation, have been depopulated or devastated by war. At the present instant Canada stands practically immune from the physical menace of war; our fields are giving their wealth to the harvester, and our other resources are yielding their bounty in greater proportion than ever. Wealth production is proceeding, and the opportunities for still greater primary production are not diminishing. This continent, including Canada, will profit largely and speedily by the changes in the world's currents of trade during the war. Many of our factories will find demands upon them stimulated because of restriction placed upon the productive machinery of Europe by the exigencies of war, and though for a time in diminished quantities, a fair proportion of Britain's available capital will come to Canada as investment. Under the circumstances, therefore, the one great essential to keep business moving is confidence, and Canada, probably of all nations of the world, has least excuse to offer for any lack of it.

Dr. G. W. Meyer

M. D., C. M.
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON
Office at house, opposite English Church.

Large tract of good valley farming land just thrown open for free settlement in Oregon. Over 200,000 acres in all, and climate, rich soil, and water does not require irrigation to raise finest crops of grain, fruit and garden truck. For large map, full instructions and information, and a plot of land, send $3.00 to John Keay, Oregon City, Oregon. Three years a U. S. surveyor and timberman. An opportunity to get a good fertile free homestead near town and market. 37-7p.

"In the unprecedented and critical situation that exists," says Sir Geo. Paish, "it is of the greatest importance that every one should endeavor to act as if great events were not impending. Were confidence seriously disturbed, business would come practically to an end, and our ability to face the difficulties that may be in front of us would be seriously impaired. Therefore, it is of vital importance that, as far as possible, the events that are now taking place should not interfere with the daily life and the daily work of the nation. Orders should be given, factories should be run, and every means should be encouraged to maintain, as far as possible, the productive power and the income of the country."

"In too this to be accomplished, the situation must be faced with courage and confidence on the part of everyone. Investors must continue to invest, bankers must continue to lend, the Stock Exchange must continue to deal, and every one according to his ability must endeavor to work hard in order that individual incomes, and therefore the income of the whole nation, may be maintained at the highest possible level."

"A little over a century ago, when the nation was at war with Napoleon, its income was a very small one, being less than one-eighth of what it is at present, and in a comparatively small space of time the British people succeeded in raising about $100,000,000 of money for war purposes, and so great was their confidence and courage that at the end of the great war, which severely taxed their resources, they were stronger and wealthier than they had been at the beginning."

Canada's natural store is as yet barely touched. From any temporary hold in our progress, from whatever cause, we can therefore, recover ourselves quickly than did the Motherland after her world-wide trials of a century ago, if our people are of the same heart and industry, and we are confident they are. Courage in the fight for the Empire is not more necessary than courage in the maintenance of the industry and commerce of the country. —Financial Post.

TENNIS

Members of the Mirror Tennis Club paid Eskinino a visit on Thursday afternoon last, losing out by 4 sets to 2.

Cratell, Good, Mirror vs Brown, McLintock, Eskinino 3-6, 7-5.

McKirky, Meyer, Mirror vs Hanna, Carruthers, Eskinino 4-6.

Cratell, Good, vs Hanna, Carruthers, 3-6.

McKirky, Carmichael vs Brown, McLintock, 2-6.

Cratell, Good, vs Hanna, Carruthers, 7-5.

Subscribe for the home paper.—THE JOURNAL.

The LISTER Engine Is British Made

The simplicity of construction and the quality of the materials used make this a potentially fire-proof engine. The Magneto insures instant action, no batteries—no power required. The Lister's engine runs at a minimum of cost. It is absolutely safe and sure. R. A. Lister & Co., Limited, with their engineering experience of ONE HUNDRED YEARS stand behind each and every engine with a positive guarantee of satisfaction.

MELTON CREAM SEPARATORS

Cost less, will run longer without repairs, always give you better returns in your dairy. Increased returns reduce the cost. Also agent for the Massey-Harris Machinery. Give me a call.

PHILIP NEIS, Agt., MIRROR

Baseball

BREWERY TROPHY SERIES

BOTHA vs. MIRROR

At MIRROR on

Thursday Afternoon AUG. 20th, 1914, at 2 p. m. and 6 p. m. sharp, [weather permitting.] If a third game is necessary

Friday Afternoon, August 28th
AT 3 p. m.

Admission TO EACH GAME 25c

Dance IN KADLEC'S HALL

THURSDAY EVENING, AUG. 20

Under the auspices of the Mirror Baseball Club
SUPPER AT IMPERIAL HOTEL, 25c

ADMISSION TO DANCE :: $1.00

GAME REGULATIONS

(From the Game Act)

3. No person shall hunt, trap, take, shoot at, wound or kill any animal or bird mentioned in the Act on the first day or the week, commonly known as Sunday.

5. Any bird of the family Gallinace, commonly known as grouse, partridge, pheasant, ptarmigan and prairie chicken, between the 1st day of December and the 1st day of October in the following year; provided that no English pheasant shall be taken or killed at any time, nor shall more than 10 birds of the family Gallinace be killed by any one person in any one day, nor more than 100 by any one person in any one season, and no person, other than a game guardian in respect of game forfeit under the provisions of this Act, shall at any time buy, sell, barter or exchange any bird in this clause mentioned;

7. No person shall at any time hunt, trap, take, shoot at, wound or kill any bird or other animal mentioned in the Act, if it be upon or over any land enclosed by a fence of any kind or any land under cultivation or covered by buildings, nor shall he allow his dog or dogs to hunt or run over upon such lands without having obtained the consent of the owner or occupant thereof.

8. No person shall hunt, trap, take, shoot at, wound or kill any big game or game bird two in one hour after sunset and one hour before sunrise.

15. No person shall hunt, trap, take, shoot at, wound or kill any big game protected by the Act without having in his possession a license duly issued to him so to do, which shall be known as a resident's big game license.

17. No person not a resident of and domiciled in the province shall be entitled to hunt, trap, take, shoot at, wound or kill any big game or game bird, or fur-bearing animal whether protected by the Act or not without first obtaining a license in that behalf; every such license shall be signed by the Minister and shall be in force for the calendar year in which the same is issued and shall be subject to the provisions of the game laws in force in the province at the time the said license is granted; the fee to be paid therefor shall be $25 for a general license and $5 for a bird license, or $25 for a license to trap fur-bearing animals. Such license shall not be valid unless the signature of the person to whom it is issued is endorsed thereon.

(2) A holder of a general license shall be entitled to take with him out of the province as trophies the head, skin and hoofs of any big game that have been legally killed by him.

(3) Any resident knowingly accompanying or aiding a non-resident to hunt or shoot without the necessary license shall be held equally to have violated the law and shall be subject to like penalties.

19. Residents' licenses may be issued by the Minister or someone authorized by him to issue same upon application therefor and the payment of a fee of two dollars and fifty cents, for each big game license, or two dollars and twenty-five cents for each bird game license;

Provided, however, that a big game license shall be issued to farmers or sons of farmers residing on their land on payment of one dollar.

(2) Each resident to whom a big game license shall have been issued in any year shall, immediately after the close of the open season for the killing or taking of the animals mentioned in section 4 of the Act return the license issued to him to the Department of Agriculture accompanied by an affidavit sworn before a justice of the peace or a commissioner for taking depositions, or a game guardian, showing the number of animals killed or taken by him during the period mentioned in such license.

(3) The Minister may require the purchasers of each and every game license to wear a button provided by the department, displayed in a conspicuous place on his coat whenever hunting under said license.

29. Any violation of any of the provisions of the Act, except as herein provided, shall be an offence punishable by summary conviction before a justice of the peace as respects killing or taking of game with a fine of not less than $200 and not more than $500, and as respects any other violation of the Act with a fine not less than $10 nor more than $50 with costs.

Nonresident's license—

General	$25.00
Bird	5.00
Trapper's license	25.00
Resident's license for big game	25.00
Permits to export	5.00
Big game per head	5.00
Game birds per dozen	1.00
Permit for scientific purposes	5.00
Guide or camp helper's license	5.00
Guide or camp helper's license	5.00
Game dealers license	5.00

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |

Game dealers license
 5.00 |